(LS)

S R NATHAN,
President.
1st March 2007.

An Act to regulate the manufacture, import, supply, presentation and advertisement of health products and of active ingredients used in the manufacture of health products and provide for matters connected therewith, and to make related and consequential amendments to certain other written laws.

Be it enacted by the President with the advice and consent of the Parliament of Singapore, as follows:

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Short title and commencement

1.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Health Products Act 2007.

(2) Except for Part XIV, this Act shall come into operation on such date as the Minister charged with the responsibility for health may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint.

(3) Part XIV shall come into operation on such date as the Minister charged with the responsibility for national development may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint.

“wholesaler’s licence” means a licence authorising the holder thereof to supply any health product by wholesale.

(2) For the purposes of this Act —

- (a) a health product is adulterated if it contains or has been mixed with any substance or ingredient that is not stated on its label as being one of its constituent substances or ingredients, except where the substance is an inactive ingredient —
 - (i) which is permitted as a food additive or flavouring agent according to the Codex Alimentarius or such other similar document as may be prescribed; or
 - (ii) which is approved by the Authority;
- (b) a health product is counterfeit if —
 - (i) it is presented in such a manner as to resemble or pass off as a registered health product when in fact it is not; or
 - (ii) it is presented with any false information as to its manufacturer or origin;
- (c) a health product is tampered with if it has been modified or interfered with in any way, including through the introduction or incorporation therein of any substance or component that is not referred to in the specifications of its manufacturer; and
- (d) a health product is unwholesome if —
 - (i) it is not in conformity as regards strength, quality or purity with the specifications of its manufacturer;
 - (ii) it has a strength which differs from, or a standard of purity or quality which falls below, that which is represented on its label;
 - (iii) any of its constituent substances or ingredients, as stated on its label, has been extracted or omitted from it;

- (iv) it contains any prohibited substance or any substance in excess of the prescribed permitted concentration;
 - (v) it consists in whole or in part of any filthy, putrid or decomposed substance;
 - (vi) it has been manufactured or stored under unsanitary conditions;
 - (vii) it has been kept in a package which is composed in whole or in part of any substance which may render the contents injurious to health;
 - (viii) it has been packed with any substance so as to reduce the purity, quality, strength or beneficial properties that it would have had if it had not been so packed; or
 - (ix) it has passed its expected useful life or its expiry date as assigned by its manufacturer.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, a licence or registration is not in force during the period of its suspension.

Purposes of Act

3. The purposes of this Act are —
- (a) to provide for the categorisation of health products in accordance with their different characteristics and uses;
 - (b) to provide the framework for a uniform approach for —
 - (i) the registration of health products; and
 - (ii) the regulation of the manufacture, import, supply, storage, presentation and advertisement of health products;
 - (c) to allow for each category of health product to be registered and regulated by reference to its formulation, composition, design specification, quality, safety and efficacy and within the framework provided by this Act; and
 - (d) to prescribe the standards for health products in relation to their formulation, composition, design specification, quality, safety, efficacy and presentation.

Act to apply only to health products specified in First Schedule

4.—(1) Except for and as provided in Part XIV, this Act shall apply only in relation to the categories of health products that are specified and described in the first and second columns of the First Schedule to the extent prescribed in the third column thereof.

(2) The Minister may, after consultation with the Authority, by order published in the Gazette add to, amend or vary the categories and descriptions of health products in the First Schedule and the extent to which the provisions of this Act shall apply thereto.

(3) In prescribing the extent to which this Act shall apply to any category of health products, the Minister may, in the third column of the First Schedule, specify the provisions or any part of any provision of this Act that shall or shall not apply in relation to such category of health products.

Act not to apply to supply or use of health products and active ingredients for veterinary purposes

5. Except as provided in Part XIV, the provisions of this Act shall not apply in relation to the supply or use by a veterinarian of any health product or active ingredient for veterinary purposes.

PART IIADMINISTRATION*Administration of Act

6. The Authority shall be responsible for the administration and enforcement of this Act (except for Part XIV) subject to the general and special directions of the Minister.

Appointment of enforcement officers

7.—(1) The Chief Executive may in writing appoint —
(a) any officer of the Authority; or
(b) with the approval of the Authority, any other person, to be an enforcement officer for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Every enforcement officer, when exercising his powers and carrying out his duties under this Act, shall comply with such general or special directions as may, from time to time, be given to him by the Chief Executive.

(3) Every enforcement officer when exercising any of his powers under this Act shall, if not in uniform, declare his office and shall, on demand, produce to any person affected by the exercise of that power such identification card as the Authority may direct to be carried by the enforcement officer when exercising such power.

Designation of analysts

8. The Chief Executive may designate any suitably qualified person as an analyst to carry out any test, evaluation or analysis as may be necessary for the purpose of the administration and enforcement of this Act.

Enforcement officers and analysts deemed to be public officers

9. Every enforcement officer and analyst shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Penal Code (Cap. 224).

Advisory Committees

10. The Authority may establish one or more Advisory Committees consisting of such persons as it thinks fit to appoint for the purpose of advising the Authority on such matters arising from the administration and enforcement of this Act as are referred to them by the Authority.

Appeal Advisory Committees

11. The Minister may establish one or more Appeal Advisory Committees consisting of such persons as he thinks fit to appoint for the purpose of —

- (a) assisting him in his determination of any appeal that is brought to him under this Act; and
- (b) advising him on any matter arising from any such appeal.

PART III

MANUFACTURE AND IMPORT OF HEALTH PRODUCTS

Manufacture of health products

12.—(1) Except in such cases as may be prescribed, no person shall manufacture any health product unless —

- (a) he holds a valid manufacturer's licence; and
- (b) the manufacture of the health product is carried out in accordance with the conditions of the licence.

(2) A manufacturer's licence does not authorise the holder thereof to supply any health product manufactured by him to any other person unless the health product so manufactured by him is a registered health product.

(3) No person shall use any premises or facility for the manufacture of any health product unless the premises or facility is authorised for such use under his manufacturer's licence or the provisions of this Act, or by the Authority.

(4) Every manufacturer of a health product shall ensure that the manufacture of the health product is carried out in accordance with such requirements as may be prescribed.

(5) No person shall manufacture, or procure or arrange for the manufacture of, any health product which is —

- (a) an adulterated health product;
- (b) a counterfeit health product; or
- (c) an unwholesome health product.

(6) Any person who contravenes subsection (1), (3), (4) or (5) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction —

- (a) in the case of an offence under subsection (1), (3), (4) or (5)(c), to a fine not exceeding $50,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both; and
- (b) in the case of an offence under subsection (5)(a) or (b), to a fine not exceeding $100,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both.

(7) In any proceedings for an offence under subsection (5), it shall be a defence for the accused to prove that he had taken all such precautions and exercised all such due diligence as could reasonably be expected of him in the circumstances to ensure that the health product did not contravene that subsection.

Import of health products

13.—(1) Except in such cases as may be prescribed, no person shall import any health product unless —

- (a) he holds a valid importer's licence; and
- (b) the import of the health product is carried out in accordance with the conditions of the licence.

(2) An importer's licence does not authorise the holder thereof to supply any health product imported by him to any other person unless the health product so imported by him is a registered health product.

(3) An importer of any health product shall not use any premises or facility for storing the health product upon its entry into Singapore unless the premises or facility is authorised for such use under his importer's licence or the provisions of this Act, or by the Authority.

(4) Every importer of a health product shall ensure that the import of the health product is carried out in accordance with such requirements as may be prescribed.

(5) No person shall import, or procure or arrange for the import of, any health product which is —

- (a) an adulterated health product;
- (b) a counterfeit health product;
- (c) a health product that has been tampered with; or
- (d) an unwholesome health product.

(6) Any person who contravenes subsection (1), (3), (4) or (5) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction —

- (a) in the case of an offence under subsection (1), (3), (4) or (5)(d), to a fine not exceeding $50,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both; and

(b) in the case of an offence under subsection (5)(a), (b) or (c), to a fine not exceeding $100,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both.

(7) In any proceedings for an offence under subsection (5), it shall be a defence for the accused to prove that —

(a) he —

(i) did not know;

(ii) had no reason to believe; and

(iii) could not, with reasonable diligence, have ascertained, that the health product was in contravention of that subsection; and

(b) he had taken all such precautions and exercised all such due diligence as could reasonably be expected of him in the circumstances to ensure that the health product did not contravene that subsection.

PART IV

SUPPLY OF HEALTH PRODUCTS

Wholesaling of health products

14.—(1) Except in such cases as may be prescribed, no person shall supply any health product by wholesale unless —

(a) he holds a valid wholesaler's licence; and

(b) the wholesale supply of the health product is carried out in accordance with the conditions of the licence.

(2) A wholesaler of any health product shall not use any premises or facility for storing the health product prior to distribution unless the premises or facility is authorised for such use under his wholesaler's licence or the provisions of this Act, or by the Authority.

(3) Every wholesaler of a health product shall ensure that the wholesale supply of the health product is carried out in accordance with such requirements as may be prescribed.

(4) Any person who contravenes subsection (1), (2) or (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both.

Prohibition against supply of unregistered health products

15.—(1) Except in such cases as may be prescribed, no person shall supply any health product unless the health product is a registered health product.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both.

Prohibition against supply of health products that are adulterated, counterfeits, etc.

16.—(1) No person shall supply, or procure or arrange for the supply of, any health product which is —

- (a) an adulterated health product;
- (b) a counterfeit health product;
- (c) a health product that has been tampered with; or
- (d) an unwholesome health product.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction —

- (a) in the case of an offence under subsection (1)(d), to a fine not exceeding $50,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both; and
- (b) in the case of an offence under subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c), to a fine not exceeding $100,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both.

(3) In any proceedings for an offence under subsection (1), it shall be a defence for the accused to prove that —

- (a) he —
 - (i) did not know;
 - (ii) had no reason to believe; and

(iii) could not, with reasonable diligence, have ascertained, that the health product was in contravention of that subsection; and

- (b) he had taken all such precautions and exercised all such due diligence as could reasonably be expected of him in the circumstances to ensure that the health product did not contravene that subsection.

Supply of health products to be carried out in accordance with prescribed requirements

17.—(1) No person shall supply any health product unless the supply of the health product is carried out in accordance with such requirements as may be prescribed.

(2) The requirements that may be prescribed for the purposes of subsection (1) include the following:

- (a) that the supply of the health product should be carried out only under, and in accordance with the conditions of, a licence issued by the Authority;
- (b) that the supply of the health product should be carried out only by certain specified persons;
- (c) that the supply of the health product should be carried out only at certain specified premises;
- (d) that the supply of the health product should or should not be carried out in any specified manner;
- (e) that the health product should be supplied only to certain specified persons and for certain specified purposes; and
- (f) that proper records should be kept in relation to any supply made of the health product.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both.

Presentation of health products

18.—(1) No person shall supply any health product unless the presentation of the health product complies with such requirements as may be prescribed.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both.

PART VADVERTISEMENT OF HEALTH PRODUCTS*Advertisement of health products

19.—(1) No person shall —

- (a) advertise any product or cause any product to be advertised as a health product if that product is not a health product; or
- (b) advertise any registered health product or cause any registered health product to be advertised in such a way as to represent the registered health product as being usable for any purpose other than that for which it has been registered.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1)(a) or (b) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

False or misleading advertisement

20.—(1) No person shall advertise any health product or cause any health product to be advertised in a false or misleading way.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), an advertisement of a health product shall be taken to be false or misleading if —

- (a) it falsely describes the health product or gives any false information concerning the health product; or
- (b) it is likely to create an erroneous impression regarding the formulation, composition, design specification, quality, safety, efficacy or uses of the health product.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

Further requirements for advertisement of health products

21.—(1) No person shall advertise any health product or cause any health product to be advertised unless the advertisement complies with and is undertaken in accordance with such requirements as may be prescribed.

(2) The requirements that may be prescribed for the purposes of subsection (1) include the following:

- (a) that the advertisement should include or exclude any specified type of information;
- (b) that the advertisement should not make certain types of claims about the health product;
- (c) that the advertisement should be distributed or circulated only to certain classes of persons;
- (d) that the advertisement should not appear in certain types of publications or media; and
- (e) that the advertisement should be submitted to the Authority for approval before publication.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

Defences

22. In any proceedings for an offence under section 19, 20 or 21, it shall be a defence for the person charged to prove that he —

- (a) is a person whose business is to publish or arrange for the publication of advertisements and that he received the advertisement for publication in the ordinary course of business;
- (b) has no financial interest in the supply of the health product featured in the advertisement; and

- (c) did not know and had no reason to suspect that the advertisement would contravene the provisions of section 19, 20 or 21, as the case may be.

Corrective measures in relation to contravening advertisements

23.—(1) Where any person has advertised any health product or caused any health product to be advertised in contravention of section 19, 20 or 21, the Authority may order that person to do any or all of the following:

- (a) to stop the advertisement with immediate effect;
- (b) to take such measures as may be reasonable and necessary in the circumstances to remove the advertisements that have already been published;
- (c) to publish a corrective advertisement in such manner and containing such information as may be specified by the Authority.

(2) The person to whom an order under subsection (1) is directed shall bear the costs and expenses arising from the taking of any measure that is required of him under the order.

(3) If a person to whom an order under subsection (1) is directed fails to comply with the order —

- (a) he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both; and
- (b) the Authority may take such steps as it thinks reasonable and necessary to implement the requirements of the order and recover any costs and expenses reasonably incurred by it in so doing from that person.

(4) This section shall not affect the liability of any person for an offence under this Part.

PART VI

LICENCES

Issue and renewal of licences

24.—(1) An application for a licence shall be made to the Authority in such form and manner as the Authority may require and shall be accompanied by —

- (a) such particulars, information, documents and samples as the Authority may require; and
- (b) if required by the Authority, a statutory declaration by the applicant verifying any information contained in or relating to the application.

(2) Upon receiving an application under subsection (1), the Authority may —

- (a) issue the licence to the applicant if it is satisfied that —
 - (i) the applicant is a fit and proper person to be issued with a licence or otherwise satisfies such requirements as may be prescribed for the issue of the licence; and
 - (ii) the issue of the licence to the applicant will not be contrary to the public interest; or
- (b) refuse to issue the licence applied for.

(3) Where the Authority refuses to issue a licence to an applicant under subsection (2)(b), the Authority shall, if requested to do so by the applicant, state in writing the reasons for the refusal.

(4) Every licence shall be issued in such form and manner as the Authority may determine, and shall be valid for such period as the Authority may specify therein unless it is sooner suspended or revoked in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(5) The Authority may attach such conditions to a licence as it thinks necessary, and may from time to time vary such conditions by notice in writing given to the licensee.

- (6) Any person who, in making an application for a licence —
- (a) makes any statement or furnishes any document which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true; or
 - (b) by the intentional suppression of any material fact, furnishes information which is misleading,

shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

(7) Subsections (1) to (6) shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to an application for the renewal of a licence.

Variation of licence conditions on application by licensee

25.—(1) A licensee may apply to the Authority for the variation of any condition attached to his licence.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall be made to the Authority in such form and manner as the Authority may require and shall —

- (a) set out the variation required and the reasons for the variation; and
- (b) be accompanied by —
 - (i) such particulars, information, documents and samples as the Authority may require; and
 - (ii) if required by the Authority, a statutory declaration by the licensee verifying any information contained in or relating to the application.

(3) Where the Authority decides to vary any condition of the licence to which the application relates, it shall amend the licence or issue a new licence to the licensee as it considers appropriate.

- (4) Any licensee who, in making an application under subsection (1) —
- (a) makes any statement or furnishes any document which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true; or

(b) by the intentional suppression of any material fact, furnishes information which is misleading,

shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

Register of licensees

26.—(1) The Authority shall keep and maintain in such form and manner as it thinks fit a register of persons who have been issued with licences under this Act.

(2) Any person may, during the office hours of the Authority and upon payment of the prescribed fee, inspect such parts of the register as the Authority may determine and obtain extracts therefrom.

(3) Any extract from or copy of an entry in the register shall be prima facie evidence of the information stated therein if the extract or copy is certified under the hand of the Chief Executive or an officer of the Authority duly authorised by the Chief Executive to be a true extract or copy.

(4) The Authority may, from time to time, prepare and publish in such form and manner as it thinks fit a list of all licensees.

Suspension and revocation of licence and cancellation of approval

27.—(1) The Authority may suspend or revoke a licence or cancel any approval granted by it under this Act if the Authority has reasonable grounds to believe that —

- (a) the issue of the licence or the grant of the approval has been obtained by fraud or misrepresentation;
- (b) the licensee or the person to whom the approval has been granted has contravened or is contravening —
 - (i) any provision of this Act;
 - (ii) any condition attached to the licence or approval; or
 - (iii) any other prescribed requirement;

- (c) the licensee or the person to whom the approval has been granted no longer satisfies any of the prescribed requirements based on which the licence was issued or the approval was granted to him; or
 - (d) it is in the public interest to do so.

(2) The Authority may revoke a licence or cancel any approval granted by it under this Act if the licensee or the person to whom the approval has been granted applies to the Authority for the revocation of the licence or the cancellation of the approval, as the case may be.

(3) Before suspending or revoking a licence or cancelling an approval under subsection (1), the Authority shall —

- (a) give to the person to whom the licence has been issued or the approval has been granted (hereafter referred to as the person concerned) notice in writing of its intention to do so; and
- (b) in such notice, call upon the person concerned to show cause within such time as may be specified in the notice as to why the licence should not be suspended or revoked or the approval should not be cancelled.

(4) If the person concerned —

- (a) fails to show cause within the period of time given or such extended period of time as the Authority may allow; or
- (b) fails to show sufficient cause,

as to why the licence should not be suspended or revoked or as to why the approval should not be cancelled, the Authority shall give notice in writing to the person concerned of the date from which the suspension or revocation of the licence or the cancellation of the approval is to take effect.

Appeal

28.—(1) Any person who is aggrieved by —

- (a) the refusal of the Authority to issue or renew a licence under section 24 or to grant any approval under this Act;
- (b) any condition attached by the Authority to a licence under section 24; or

- (c) the decision of the Authority to suspend or revoke a licence or to cancel an approval under section 27, may, within such time as may be specified in the notice informing him of the refusal, suspension, revocation or cancellation, as the case may be, appeal in writing to the Minister whose decision shall be final.

(2) Before making a decision under subsection (1), the Minister may refer the matter to an Appeal Advisory Committee and, in making his decision, the Minister shall have regard to any report made to him by the Appeal Advisory Committee.

(3) Notwithstanding that any appeal under subsection (1) is pending —

- (a) any condition attached by the Authority to a licence under section 24; or
- (b) the decision of the Authority to suspend or revoke a licence or to cancel an approval under section 27, shall take effect from the date specified by the Authority, unless the Minister otherwise directs.

PART VII

REGISTRATION OF HEALTH PRODUCTS

Health products to be registered according to categories in First Schedule

29.—(1) The Authority shall register health products under this Act in accordance with the categories specified in the First Schedule.

(2) The Authority may —

- (a) subdivide any category of health products into such number of classes as it thinks fit; and
- (b) when registering any health product under that category, assign that health product into such class within that category as it thinks fit.

Registration of health products

30.—(1) An application for the registration of a health product shall —

- (a) be made to the Authority by such person and in such form and manner as the Authority may require;
- (b) state the category (and, where applicable, the class within that category) under which the applicant is seeking to have the health product registered; and
- (c) be accompanied by —
 - (i) such particulars, information, documents and samples as the Authority may require; and
 - (ii) if required by the Authority, a statutory declaration by the applicant verifying any information contained in or relating to the application.

(2) Upon receiving an application under subsection (1), the Authority may —

- (a) register the health product if it is satisfied that —
 - (i) the applicant is a fit and proper person to be granted such registration;
 - (ii) the registration of the health product will not be contrary to the public interest; and
 - (iii) the health product complies with such requirements as may be prescribed; or
- (b) refuse to register the health product.

(3) The Authority may register a health product under the category and class stated in the application for its registration if the Authority is satisfied, after an evaluation of the health product under section 33, that the health product is suitable to be so registered.

(4) If the Authority finds that a health product is not suitable for registration under the category or class stated in the application, it may —

- (a) recommend to the applicant that the health product be registered under a more suitable category or class as determined by the Authority; or
- (b) refuse to register the health product.

(5) If the applicant accepts the recommendation of the Authority under subsection (4)(a), the Authority shall, subject to the payment of the appropriate prescribed fee by the applicant, register the health product under the category or class recommended by it.

(6) If the applicant does not wish to register the health product under the category or class recommended by the Authority under subsection (4)(a), he may —

- (a) within such time as the Authority may allow, submit to the Authority such additional information, documents and samples as the Authority may require in support of his application to have the health product registered under the category or class stated in his application; or
- (b) withdraw the application.

(7) Upon considering the additional information, documents and samples submitted by the applicant under subsection (6)(a), the Authority may do any of the following:

- (a) register the health product under the category and class stated in the application if it is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so;
- (b) subject to the payment of the appropriate prescribed fee by the applicant, register the health product under the category or class recommended by the Authority under subsection (4)(a) if the applicant is agreeable thereto; or
- (c) refuse to register the health product.

(8) Upon registering a health product under this Act, the Authority shall assign a registration number to the health product and shall enter in the Register of Health Products the prescribed information pertaining to that health product.

(9) Where the Authority refuses to register a health product under subsection (2)(b), (4)(b) or (7)(c), the Authority shall, if requested to do so by the applicant, state in writing the reasons for the refusal.

(10) Any person who, in making an application for the registration of a health product —

- (a) makes any statement or furnishes any document which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true; or

- (b) by the intentional suppression of any material fact, furnishes information which is misleading,

shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

Duration of registration

31. The registration of a health product under this Act shall remain in force for so long as —

- (a) the registrant of the health product continues to pay to the Authority within the prescribed time, such retention fee as may be prescribed for the retention of the registration of the health product in the Register of Health Products; and
- (b) the registration is not otherwise suspended or cancelled by the Authority under section 37(1).

Conditions of registration

32. The Authority may attach such conditions to the registration of a health product as it thinks necessary, and may from time to time vary such conditions by notice in writing given to the registrant of the health product.

Evaluation of health products

33.—(1) In order to ascertain that a health product is suitable for registration under this Act or for registration under any particular category or class, the Authority may —

- (a) subject samples of the health product to an evaluation by an analyst;
- (b) require the applicant for the registration of the health product to send samples of the health product for evaluation by an analyst and thereafter submit the evaluation report to the Authority; or
- (c) consider the evaluation report of any body or organisation, whether in Singapore or elsewhere, that has evaluated the health product.

(2) The evaluation of a health product shall include such tests and examination of the health product as the Authority thinks necessary to determine the following matters:

- (a) whether the quality, safety or efficacy of the health product for the purposes for which it is to be used has been satisfactorily established;
- (b) whether the presentation of the health product is appropriate, given its formulation, composition or design specification and intended purpose;
- (c) whether the health product complies with such requirements as may have been prescribed in relation thereto; and
- (d) such other matters relating to the health product as the Authority thinks relevant.

(3) The requirements that may be prescribed for the purposes of subsection (2)(c) include the following:

- (a) that the health product should not have in its composition —
 - (i) any prohibited substance; or
 - (ii) any particular substance in excess of the prescribed permitted concentration; and
- (b) that the manufacture of the health product —
 - (i) if carried out in Singapore, should comply with such requirements as may be prescribed; and
 - (ii) if carried out elsewhere, should comply with such standards that are acceptable to the Authority.

(4) In determining whether a health product complies with the standards referred to in subsection (3)(b)(ii), the Authority may consider such evidence as it thinks sufficient from a relevant overseas authority establishing that the manufacture of the health product is of the acceptable standard.

(5) The costs of and incidental to the evaluation of a health product shall be borne by the applicant for the registration of the health product.

Register of Health Products

34.—(1) The Authority shall keep and maintain in such form and manner as it thinks fit a Register of Health Products for the purpose of compiling information in relation to all registered health products.

(2) Any person may, during the office hours of the Authority and upon payment of the prescribed fee, inspect such parts of the Register of Health Products as the Authority may determine and obtain extracts therefrom.

(3) Any extract from or copy of an entry in the Register of Health Products shall be prima facie evidence of the information stated therein if the extract or copy is certified under the hand of the Chief Executive or an officer of the Authority duly authorised by the Chief Executive to be a true extract or copy.

(4) The Authority may, from time to time, prepare and publish in such form and manner as it thinks fit a list of all registered health products.

Re-categorisation or reclassification of health products on application of registrant

35.—(1) The Authority may, upon the application of the registrant of a registered health product —

- (a) transfer the health product from the category or class under which it has been registered to another category or class; and
- (b) cause such amendments to be made in the Register of Health Products as may be necessitated by the re-categorisation or reclassification of that health product.

(2) An application under subsection (1) for the re-categorisation or reclassification of a registered health product shall —

- (a) be made to the Authority in such form and manner as the Authority may require; and
- (b) be accompanied by —
 - (i) such particulars, information, documents and samples as the Authority may require; and
 - (ii) if required by the Authority, a statutory declaration by the applicant verifying any information contained in or relating to the application.

(3) Upon the re-categorisation or reclassification of a registered health product under this section, the registrant of the health product shall take such steps as may be specified by the Authority to secure the necessary changes to the presentation and advertisement of the health product so as to bring them in conformity with the new category or class of the health product.

(4) If the registrant of the health product fails to comply with subsection (3), he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

(5) Any person who, in making an application under subsection (1) for the re-categorisation or reclassification of a registered health product —

- (a) makes any statement or furnishes any document which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true; or
- (b) by the intentional suppression of any material fact, furnishes information which is misleading,

shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

Power to re-categorise or reclassify health products in absence of application by registrant

36.—(1) Where —

- (a) the Authority is satisfied upon information received by it in respect of a registered health product that the health product should be transferred from the category or class under which it has been registered to another category or class; but
- (b) the registrant of the health product has not made an application under section 35 for the health product to be so re-categorised or reclassified, the Authority may, subject to subsection (2), of its own volition re-categorise or reclassify the health product and cause such amendments to be made in the Register of Health Products as may be necessitated by the re-categorisation or reclassification of that health product.

(2) Before re-categorising or reclassifying a registered health product under subsection (1), the Authority shall —

- (a) give to the registrant of the health product notice in writing of its intention to do so; and
 - (b) in such notice, call upon the registrant, if he wishes, to show cause within such time as may be specified in the notice as to why the health product should not be re-categorised or reclassified as intended by the Authority.
- (3) If the registrant of the health product —
- (a) is agreeable to the re-categorisation or reclassification of the health product; or
 - (b) fails to show cause within the period of time given or such extended period of time as the Authority may allow, or fails to show sufficient cause as to why the health product should not be re-categorised or reclassified as intended by the Authority, the Authority shall give notice in writing to the registrant of the health product of the date from which the re-categorisation or reclassification of the health product is to take effect.

(4) The Authority may also in the notice given under subsection (3) require the registrant of the health product to take such steps as may be specified by the Authority to secure the necessary changes to the presentation and advertisement of the health product so as to bring them in conformity with the new category or class of the health product.

(5) The registrant of a health product who fails to comply with any of the requirements attached under subsection (4) to a notice given to him under subsection (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

(6) Where the registrant of a health product does not wish to have the health product re-categorised or reclassified as intended by the Authority under this section, he may apply to the Authority to cancel the registration of the health product.

Suspension and cancellation of registration

37.—(1) The Authority may suspend or cancel the registration of a health product if the Authority has reasonable grounds to believe that —

- (a) the registration has been obtained by fraud or misrepresentation;

- (b) the registrant of the health product has contravened or is contravening —
 - (i) any provision of this Act;
 - (ii) any condition attached to the registration; or
 - (iii) any other prescribed requirement;
- (c) the formulation, composition, design specification, quality, safety or presentation of the health product has changed such as to render it unsuitable to continue to be registered;
- (d) the health product no longer complies with a prescribed requirement; or
- (e) it is in the public interest to do so.

(2) The Authority may cancel the registration of a health product if the registrant of the health product fails to pay the prescribed retention fee referred to in section 31(a) within the prescribed time.

(3) The Authority may, upon the application of the registrant of a health product, cancel the registration of the health product.

(4) Before suspending or cancelling the registration of any health product under subsection (1) or (2), the Authority shall —

- (a) give to the registrant of the health product notice in writing of its intention to do so; and
- (b) in such notice, call upon the registrant of the health product to show cause within such time as may be specified in the notice as to why the registration of the health product should not be suspended or cancelled.

(5) If the registrant of the health product —

- (a) fails to show cause within the period of time given or such extended period of time as the Authority may allow; or
- (b) fails to show sufficient cause,

as to why the registration of the health product should not be suspended or cancelled, the Authority shall give notice in writing to the registrant of the health product of the date from which the suspension or cancellation of the registration of the health product is to take effect.

Appeal

38.—(1) Any person who is aggrieved by —

- (a) the refusal of the Authority to register a health product under section 30;
- (b) any condition attached by the Authority to the registration of a health product under section 32;
- (c) the decision of the Authority to re-categorise or reclassify a health product under section 36; or
- (d) the decision of the Authority to suspend or cancel the registration of a health product under section 37,

may, within such time as may be specified in the notice informing him of the refusal, suspension, revocation or cancellation, as the case may be, appeal in writing to the Minister whose decision shall be final.

(2) Before making a decision under subsection (1), the Minister may refer the matter to an Appeal Advisory Committee and, in making his decision, the Minister shall have regard to any report made to him by the Appeal Advisory Committee.

(3) Notwithstanding that any appeal under subsection (1) is pending —

- (a) any condition attached by the Authority to the registration of a health product under section 32;
- (b) the decision of the Authority to re-categorise or reclassify a health product under section 36; or
- (c) the decision of the Authority to suspend or cancel the registration of a health product under section 37, shall take effect from the date specified by the Authority, unless the Minister otherwise directs.

PART VIII

DUTIES OF MANUFACTURERS, IMPORTERS, ETC., OF HEALTH PRODUCTS

Application of this Part

39. The duties imposed by this Part on manufacturers, importers, suppliers and registrants of health products shall apply in addition to any other duty imposed on them under Part III, IV or VII, as the case may be.

Keeping of records

40.—(1) The Authority may, by notice in writing, require the manufacturer, importer, supplier or registrant of a health product —

- (a) to keep such records as the Authority may determine in relation to the manufacture, import, supply, use or administration (as the case may be) of the health product; and
- (b) to produce such records for inspection by the Authority or an enforcement officer as and when required by the Authority or enforcement officer.

(2) The records referred to in subsection (1) shall be kept in such form and manner and for such period as the Authority may stipulate, and shall contain such information in relation to the manufacture, import, supply, use or administration (as the case may be) of the health product as the Authority may require.

(3) Any person who fails to comply with any requirement under subsection (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

(4) Any person who, in compliance or purported compliance with subsection (1)(b), furnishes the Authority or an enforcement officer with any record which he knows is false or misleading, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

Furnishing of information or document regarding health product

41.—(1) The Authority may, by notice in writing, require the manufacturer, importer, supplier or registrant of a health product to furnish to the Authority, within such time and for such period as may be specified in such notice, any information or document which he has in his possession or which he is in a position to obtain regarding such health product.

(2) Any person who fails to comply with a notice given to him by the Authority under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

(3) Any person who, in compliance or purported compliance with a notice given to him by the Authority under subsection (1), furnishes the Authority with any information or document which he knows is false or misleading, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

Reporting of defects and adverse effects to Authority

42.—(1) Where the manufacturer, importer, supplier or registrant of a health product becomes aware of —

- (a) any defect in the health product; or
- (b) any adverse effect that has arisen or can arise from the use of the health product, it shall be the duty of such person to inform the Authority within the prescribed time of the defect or adverse effect.

(2) Where the Authority receives any information under subsection (1) concerning any defect in, or adverse effect of, a health product or becomes aware of any such defect or adverse effect through any other means, it may take any one or more of the following actions:

- (a) by notice in writing require the manufacturer, importer, supplier or registrant of the health product to investigate into the defect or adverse effect and make a report of his findings and recommendations to the Authority;
- (b) by notice in writing require the manufacturer, importer, supplier or registrant of the health product to issue or cause to be issued to such persons as the Authority may specify or to the general public a statement informing them of the defect or adverse effect and the measures that should be taken for addressing such defect or adverse effect;

- (c) by notice in writing require the manufacturer, importer, supplier or registrant of the health product to recall the health product and take such measures as the Authority may specify to secure the immediate stoppage of the manufacture, import, supply, use or administration (as the case may be) of the health product;
- (d) by notice in writing prohibit any person from using or administering the health product and require such person to take such measures as the Authority may specify to address any adverse effect that may have arisen from any previous use or administration of the health product;
- (e) by notice in writing require the manufacturer, importer, supplier or registrant of the health product to take such other measures as the Authority thinks necessary in the circumstances.

(3) The Authority may also in any notice in writing given under subsection (2) require the person to whom the notice has been given to submit to the Authority in such form and manner and within such time and for such period as the Authority may specify, a report containing information on —

- (a) the measures that he has taken under the order;
- (b) the results of the measures so taken; and
- (c) any other matter as the Authority thinks necessary or relevant in the circumstances.

(4) A statement under subsection (2)(b) shall be issued in such form and manner as the Authority may require, including —

- (a) by publication in any one or more daily newspapers circulating in Singapore; or
- (b) by dissemination in such alternative medium, within such time and for such period as the Authority may determine.

- (5) Any person who —
- (a) fails to comply with subsection (1) or a notice given to him by the Authority under subsection (2) or (3); or
 - (b) in compliance or purported compliance with subsection (1) or a notice given to him by the Authority under subsection (2) or (3), furnishes the Authority with any information or document which he knows is false or misleading, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

- (6) For the purposes of this section, a health product has a defect if —
- (a) it has or has possibly been adulterated or tampered with;
 - (b) it is or is possibly a counterfeit or an unwholesome health product;
 - (c) it is or is possibly of inadequate quality or unsafe or inefficacious for its intended purpose; or
 - (d) it fails or could possibly fail to satisfy such other standards or requirements as may be prescribed.

Verification of quality, safety and efficacy of health product

43.—(1) Where the Authority has reasonable grounds to believe that a health product may no longer be of adequate quality, safe or efficacious when used for the purpose in respect of which it has been registered under this Act, the Authority may, by notice in writing, require the manufacturer, importer, supplier or registrant of the health product to take such measures as the Authority may specify to verify the quality, safety or efficacy (as the case may be) of the health product.

(2) The measures that the Authority may require under subsection (1) include —

- (a) subjecting the health product to an evaluation in accordance with section 33; and
- (b) furnishing the Authority with such evidence of the quality, safety or efficacy of the health product as the Authority may require.

(3) Any person who fails to comply with a notice given to him by the Authority under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

(4) Any person who, in compliance or purported compliance with a notice given to him by the Authority under subsection (1), furnishes the Authority with any information or document which he knows is false or misleading, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

Notification to Authority concerning recall of health product

44.—(1) Where the manufacturer, importer, supplier or registrant of a health product recalls or intends to recall the health product, he shall, within the prescribed time, notify the Authority of the recall or intended recall and the reasons therefor.

(2) On being notified of the recall or intended recall of a health product under subsection (1), the Authority may, by notice in writing, require the manufacturer, importer, supplier or registrant of the health product to issue or cause to be issued to such persons as the Authority may specify or to the general public a statement informing them of the recall of the health product and such other matter as the Authority considers necessary.

(3) Any person who —

- (a) fails to comply with subsection (1) or a notice given to him by the Authority under subsection (2); or
- (b) in compliance or purported compliance with subsection (1), furnishes the Authority with any information or document which he knows is false or misleading,

shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

Additional duties under regulations

45. The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, by regulations provide for such additional duties as it thinks fit to be imposed on manufacturers, importers, suppliers and registrants of health products.

PART IXREGULATION OF DEALINGS IN ACTIVE INGREDIENTS*Active ingredients to which this Part applies

46. This Part shall apply to such active ingredients as may be prescribed.

Regulation of manufacture, import, supply, etc., of active ingredients

47.—(1) The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, make regulations to control and regulate the manufacture, import, supply, transport, possession and storage of active ingredients.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) may —

- (a) prohibit the manufacture, import, supply, transport, possession or storage of any active ingredient except under and in accordance with the conditions of a licence issued by the Authority; and
- (b) prescribe the requirements to be complied with by any person who manufactures, imports, supplies, transports, possesses or stores any active ingredient.

(3) The requirements that may be prescribed for the purposes of subsection (2)(b) include the following:

- (a) that the manufacture, import, supply, transport or storage of any active ingredient should be carried out only by certain specified persons;
- (b) that the manufacture, supply or storage of any active ingredient should be carried out only at certain specified premises;
- (c) that the manufacture, import, supply, transport or storage of any active ingredient should or should not be carried out in any specified manner;
- (d) that the packaging of any active ingredient should comply with certain standards or specifications;
- (e) that the labels on the packaging of any active ingredient should conform to certain specifications and contain certain specified information;

- (f) that the supply of any active ingredient should only be made to certain specified persons and for certain specified purposes; and
- (g) that proper records should be kept in relation to any supply made of any active ingredient.

(4) Any person who contravenes any regulation made under this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both.

(5) In any proceedings for an offence under subsection (4), if any person is proved to have kept or had in his possession or under his control any active ingredient, he shall be presumed to have done so knowingly unless the contrary is proved by him.

PART X

ENFORCEMENT

Non-compliant health products and active ingredients

48. For the purposes of this Part —

- (a) a health product shall be considered as being non-compliant if —
 - (i) it has been manufactured, imported or supplied in contravention of this Act;
 - (ii) it is an adulterated health product, a counterfeit health product, a health product that has been tampered with or an unwholesome health product; or
 - (iii) it does not comply with such requirements as may be prescribed in relation to it; and
- (b) an active ingredient shall be considered as being non-compliant if —
 - (i) it has been manufactured, imported or supplied in contravention of this Act; or
 - (ii) it does not comply with such requirements as may be prescribed in relation to it.

Powers of enforcement

49.—(1) For the purpose of the administration and enforcement of this Act, an enforcement officer may —

- (a) at any time and without warrant enter, inspect and search any premises that are being used, or that the enforcement officer has reason to suspect are being used, for or in connection with any purpose that is in contravention of this Act;
- (b) at any time and without warrant stop, board, inspect and search any conveyance that is being used, or that the enforcement officer has reason to suspect is being used, for or in connection with any purpose that is in contravention of this Act;
- (c) in accordance with such procedure as may be prescribed and without payment, take for testing, examination or analysis a sample of any health product or active ingredient that is found pursuant to an inspection or a search under paragraph (a) or (b);
- (d) seize —
 - (i) any health product or active ingredient, wherever found, if the enforcement officer knows or has reason to suspect that the health product or active ingredient is a non-compliant health product or active ingredient; or
 - (ii) any other substance or article which the enforcement officer has reasonable cause to believe to be a substance or an article in relation to which, or by means of which, an offence under this Act is being or has been committed;
- (e) by notice in writing require any person to attend at such reasonable time and at such place as may be specified by the enforcement officer to answer any question or to provide a signed statement in writing concerning any suspected contravention of this Act;
- (f) arrest, without warrant, any person whom the enforcement officer has reason to believe has committed any offence under this Act if —
 - (i) the name and address of that person are unknown;
 - (ii) the person refuses to furnish his name or address;
 - (iii) the person furnishes an address out of Singapore;

(iv) the enforcement officer has reasonable grounds for believing that the person has furnished a false name or address; or

(v) the enforcement officer has reasonable grounds for believing that the person is likely to abscond;

(g) require any person —

(i) to furnish any information within his knowledge; or

(ii) to produce for inspection any document or record within his possession, that the enforcement officer believes on reasonable grounds to be connected with any suspected contravention of this Act or to be otherwise relevant to the administration or enforcement of this Act;

(h) retain the original copy of any document or record that the enforcement officer believes on reasonable grounds to be connected with any suspected contravention of this Act or to be otherwise relevant to the administration or enforcement of this Act, or make or cause to be made, without payment, copies of or extracts from such document or record; and

(i) by notice in writing require any person having in his possession any health product or active ingredient that is intended for supply to submit, at his own expense, a sample of such health product or active ingredient to an analyst for analysis.

(2) In exercising his power under subsection (1)(a) or (b), an enforcement officer may —

(a) require the owner or occupier of any premises or conveyance being inspected to provide all reasonable assistance to the enforcement officer for the purpose of the inspection; and

(b) if the circumstances so warrant, with such assistance as he thinks necessary, break open any door, window, lock, fastener, hold, compartment, box, container, receptacle or any other thing, and any person who fails to comply with any requirement of an enforcement officer under paragraph (a) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

(3) The Authority may, by notice in writing, require any person who has supplied any health product or active ingredient to recall, within such period as may be specified in the notice, all such health product or active ingredient if the Authority knows or has reason to believe that such health product or active ingredient is a non-compliant health product or active ingredient.

(4) The Authority may, by notice in writing, require any person who manufactures, imports or supplies any health product or active ingredient to cease (whether immediately or within such time as the Authority may specify) the manufacture, import or supply of such health product or active ingredient if —

- (a) the Authority knows or has reason to believe that such health product or active ingredient is a non-compliant health product or active ingredient; or
- (b) a sample of the health product or active ingredient has been taken or obtained under subsection (1)(c) or (i) and sent for analysis and pending the result of the analysis, the Authority is of the opinion that it is necessary to prevent any more of such health product or active ingredient from further being manufactured, imported or supplied.

(5) Where any item has been seized under subsection (1)(d) —

- (a) the enforcement officer who seized the item shall immediately give notice in writing of the seizure to the person from whom the item was seized, if the name and address of that person are known;
- (b) any person claiming the item seized may within 48 hours after the seizure complain thereof to a Magistrate, and the complaint may be heard and determined by the Magistrate who may —
 - (i) confirm the seizure wholly or in part;
 - (ii) disallow the seizure wholly or in part;
 - (iii) order that the item seized be restored to its owner, subject to such condition which the Magistrate may think fit to impose to ensure that the item is preserved for any purpose for which it may subsequently be required; or

- (iv) order payment to be made to the owner of the item seized of such amount as the Magistrate considers will compensate him for any loss or depreciation resulting from the seizure;
- (c) in the absence of any claim under paragraph (b) or pending the determination of any such claim, the item may be kept or stored in the premises or conveyance where it was seized or may, at the direction of the enforcement officer, be removed to any other place to be kept or stored thereat;
- (d) the enforcement officer may —
 - (i) mark, seal or label the item in such manner as he thinks fit for the purpose of indicating that the item is under detention; and
 - (ii) lock or seal the premises or conveyance in which the item is being detained; and
- (e) any person who, without the authority of the enforcement officer —
 - (i) interferes, tampers with, removes, distributes, sells or otherwise disposes of the item;
 - (ii) alters, counterfeits, defaces, destroys, erases or removes any mark, seal or label placed by the enforcement officer on the item under paragraph (d)(i); or
 - (iii) opens, breaks or otherwise tampers with the lock or seal placed by the enforcement officer on any premises or conveyance or part thereof under paragraph (d)(ii),

shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

(6) No person arrested under subsection (1)(f) shall be detained longer than is necessary for bringing him before a court unless the order of a court for his detention is obtained.

(7) For the purposes of subsection (1)(g), where any document or record required by an enforcement officer is kept in electronic form, then —

- (a) the power of the enforcement officer to require such document or record to be produced for inspection includes the power to require a copy of the document or record to be made available for inspection in legible form (and subsection (1)(h) shall accordingly apply in relation to any copy so made available); and

- (b) the power of the enforcement officer to inspect such document or record includes the power to require any person on the premises in question to give the enforcement officer such assistance as the enforcement officer may reasonably require to enable him to inspect and make copies of the document or record in legible form or to make records of the information contained therein.

(8) Any copy of or extract from any document or record made under subsection (1)(h) and certified as such by the enforcement officer shall be admissible as evidence in any proceedings under this Act.

(9) Any person who, when required by an enforcement officer under subsection (1)(g) to furnish any information or produce any document or record, refuses or fails, without reasonable excuse, to furnish the information or to produce the document or record within the time allowed by the enforcement officer shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

(10) Any person who, when required by an enforcement officer —

- (a) under subsection (1)(e) to answer any question or to provide any signed statement in writing; or
- (b) under subsection (1)(g) to furnish any information or produce any document or record, in compliance or purported compliance with such requirement, furnishes the enforcement officer with any information, document or record which he knows is false or misleading, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

(11) Any person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with any notice in writing given to him —

- (a) by an enforcement officer under subsection (1)(e) or (i); or
- (b) by the Authority under subsection (3) or (4),

shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

Unlawful alteration, destruction, etc., of documents

50. Any person who alters, suppresses, conceals or destroys any document which he is or is liable to be required, by or under this Act, to produce to an enforcement officer shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

Obstructing officers in execution of their duties

51. Any person who obstructs, hinders or impedes any enforcement officer or any other person acting under the direction of the Authority or the Chief Executive in the performance or execution of his duty or anything which he is authorised, empowered or required to do under this Act shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

PART XIPRESUMPTIONS AND OTHER EVIDENTIARY PROVISIONS
FOR PURPOSES OF ENFORCEMENT OF ACT*Presumption as to liability of importers and manufacturers

52. Where any health product or active ingredient is supplied in a package, any person who appears from any statement thereon or attached thereto to have imported or manufactured that health product or active ingredient shall, until the contrary is proved, be presumed to have so imported or manufactured the health product or active ingredient.

Presumption as to identity of advertiser

53. Where any health product is advertised, the person whose name or particulars appear in the advertisement shall, until the contrary is proved, be presumed to be the person who has advertised the health product.

Presumption as to purpose for which health product is manufactured, imported or supplied 54.—(1) Any person who manufactures, imports or supplies any health product shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to have manufactured, imported or supplied the health product for use by humans.

- (2) Any health product that is found —
- (a) on any premises that are used for the manufacture, storage or supply of health products;
 - (b) in any conveyance that is used for the transportation of health products; or
 - (c) in any automatic vending machine, shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be intended for use by humans.

Presumption as to similarity in properties between health products, etc., found and sample taken therefrom

55. Any quantity of a health product or an active ingredient found in any premises or on any conveyance at the time when a sample thereof is taken pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall, until the contrary is proved, be presumed to possess the same properties as such sample.

Presumption of person's intention to supply health product found in his possession

56. Where any person is found to be keeping or to be in possession of any health product in circumstances in which it would be reasonable to suspect that he intends to supply the health product, he shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to have the health product in his possession for the purpose of supply.

Evidence of analyst

57.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), the certificate of an analyst stating that he has tested, examined or analysed any health product, active ingredient or other substance or thing and stating the result of his test, examination or analysis shall be admissible in evidence in any proceedings for an offence under this Act as prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the certificate and of the correctness of the result of the test, examination or analysis.

(2) The certificate of an analyst referred to in subsection (1) shall not be received in evidence in pursuance of that subsection unless the person charged has been given a copy of the certificate together with reasonable notice of the intention of the prosecution to produce the certificate as evidence in the proceedings.

(3) Where the certificate of an analyst is admitted in evidence under subsection (1), the person charged may require the analyst to be called as a witness for the prosecution and the analyst may be cross-examined as if he had given evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a document purporting to be a certificate referred to in subsection (1) on its production by the prosecution shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be such a certificate.

PART XII

OFFENCES AND PROSECUTION

Jurisdiction of court

58. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68), a District Court shall have jurisdiction to try any offence under this Act and shall have power to impose the full penalty or punishment in respect of the offence.

Offences by bodies corporate, etc.

59.—(1) Where an offence under this Act committed by a body corporate is proved —

- (a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of an officer; or
- (b) to be attributable to any neglect on his part,

the officer as well as the body corporate shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) shall apply in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with his functions of management as if he were a director of the body corporate.

(3) Where an offence under this Act committed by a partnership is proved —

- (a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of a partner; or

(b) to be attributable to any neglect on his part,

the partner as well as the partnership shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(4) Where an offence under this Act committed by an unincorporated association (other than a partnership) is proved —

(a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of an officer of the unincorporated association or a member of its governing body; or

(b) to be attributable to any neglect on the part of such an officer or member, the officer or member as well as the unincorporated association shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(5) In this section —

“body corporate” includes a limited liability partnership which has the same meaning as in section 2(1) of the Limited Liability Partnerships Act (Cap. 163A);

“officer” —

(a) in relation to a body corporate, means any director, partner, member of the committee of management, chief executive, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate and includes any person purporting to act in any such capacity; or

(b) in relation to an unincorporated association (other than a partnership), means the president, the secretary, or any member of the committee of the unincorporated association, or any person holding a position analogous to that of president, secretary or member of a committee and includes any person purporting to act in any such capacity;

“partner” includes a person purporting to act as a partner.

(6) The Minister may make regulations to provide for the application of any provision of this section, with such modifications as the Minister considers appropriate, to any body corporate or unincorporated association formed or recognised under the law of a territory outside Singapore.

Enhanced penalty for corporations

60. Where a body corporate is convicted of an offence under this Act, the penalty that the court may impose shall be a fine not exceeding 2 times the maximum amount that the court could, but for this section, impose as a fine for that offence.

Liability for offences by agents or employees

61. Where an offence under this Act is committed by any person acting as an agent or employee of another person, or being otherwise subject to the supervision or instruction of another person for the purposes of any employment in the course of which the offence was committed, that other person shall, without prejudice to the liability of the first-mentioned person, be liable under this Act in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had personally committed the offence if it is proved that the act which constituted the offence was committed with his consent or connivance or that it was attributable to any neglect on his part.

Forfeiture

62.—(1) The court before which any person is tried for an offence under this Act may make an order for the forfeiture of any item which has been seized under the provisions of this Act if the court is satisfied that —

- (a) an offence under this Act has been committed; and
- (b) the item seized was the subject-matter, or was used in the commission, of the offence.

(2) Where no party raises the question of forfeiture under subsection (1), the court may consider the question on its own motion.

(3) The court may make an order under subsection (1) for the forfeiture of any item which has been seized under the provisions of this Act notwithstanding that no person has been convicted of an offence.

(4) If the court, having regard to the circumstances of the case, does not think it fit to order the forfeiture of any item which has been seized under the provisions of this Act, the court shall order that the item be released to the owner thereof or the person entitled thereto.

(5) If —

- (a) no prosecution is instituted with regard to any item which has been seized under the provisions of this Act; and

(b) no claim is made for the item under section 49(5)(b), the item to which the notice relates shall be deemed to be forfeited.

(6) Where the owner of any item seized under the provisions of this Act consents to its disposal, the item shall thereupon be deemed to be forfeited.

(7) Any item forfeited or deemed to be forfeited under this section shall be delivered to the Authority or an officer thereof and shall be disposed of in such manner as the Chief Executive thinks fit.

(8) The costs of the disposal of any item under subsection (7) shall be borne by the owner of that item.

Recovery of fees and other expenses incidental to prosecution

63.—(1) When any person is convicted of an offence under this Act, the court may order that person to pay the following costs and expenses:

- (a) all expenses incidental to the analysis of any health product or active ingredient in respect of which the conviction is obtained;
- (b) the cost of the purchase of any sample of the health product or active ingredient for analysis; and
- (c) any other reasonable expenses incurred by the prosecution.

(2) If the amount of the costs and expenses is not paid by the person liable to pay those costs and expenses within 14 days after demand, that amount may be reported to a Magistrate's Court and recovered in the same manner as if it were a fine imposed by a Magistrate's Court.

Non-disclosure of information

64.—(1) No prosecutor or witness in any prosecution of an offence under this Act shall be compelled to disclose the fact that he received any information or the nature of the information or the name of any person who gave the information.

(2) No officer appearing as a prosecutor or witness in connection with any offence under this Act shall be compelled to produce any confidential report or document made or received by him in his official capacity or to make any statement in relation thereto.

Composition of offences

65.—(1) The Chief Executive or any officer of the Authority authorised in writing in that behalf by the Chief Executive may, in his discretion, compound any offence under this Act which is prescribed as a compoundable offence by collecting from a person reasonably suspected of having committed the offence a sum not exceeding —

- (a) one half of the amount of the maximum fine that is prescribed for the offence; or
- (b) $5,000,

whichever is the lower.

(2) On payment of such sum of money, no further proceedings shall be taken against that person in respect of the offence.

(3) All sums collected under this section shall be paid into the funds of the Authority.

PART XIII

MISCELLANEOUS

Protection of confidential information

66.—(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2), no person who is or has been involved in the administration and enforcement of this Act shall disclose any information relating to any health product that he knows or ought reasonably to know to be confidential information.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall prevent any person from disclosing any information within his knowledge concerning any health product where such disclosure is made —

- (a) with the permission of the person from whom the information was obtained;
- (b) for the purpose of the administration and enforcement of this Act;
- (c) for the purpose of assisting any public officer or officer of any other statutory board in the investigation or prosecution of any offence under any written law;
- (d) for such other prescribed purpose; or

(e) in compliance with the requirement of any court or the provisions of any written law.

(3) For the purpose of this section, the reference to a person disclosing or making use of any information includes his permitting any other person to have any access to any record, document or other thing which is in his possession or under his control by virtue of his being or having been involved in the administration or enforcement of this Act.

(4) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

Service of documents

67.—(1) Any notice, order or document required or authorised by this Act to be served on any person, and any summons issued by a court against any person in connection with any offence under this Act may be served on the person —

- (a) by delivering it to the person or to some adult member or employee of his family or household at his last known place of residence;
- (b) by leaving it at his usual or last known place of residence or business in an envelope addressed to the person;
- (c) by sending it by pre-paid registered post addressed to the person at his usual or last known place of residence or business; or
- (d) in the case of an incorporated company, a partnership or a body of persons —
 - (i) by delivering it to the secretary or other like officer of the company, partnership or body of persons at its registered office or principal place of business; or
 - (ii) by sending it by pre-paid registered post addressed to the company, partnership or body of persons at its registered office or principal place of business.

(2) Any notice, order, document or summons sent by pre-paid registered post to any person in accordance with subsection (1)(c) or (d)(ii) shall be deemed to be duly served on the person at the time when the notice, order, document or summons, as the case may be, would in the ordinary course of post be delivered and, in proving service of the notice, order, document or summons, it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope containing the same was properly addressed, stamped and posted by pre-paid registered post.

Form and authentication of notices, orders and other documents

68.—(1) All notices, orders and other documents which an enforcement officer is empowered to give by this Act may be in such form and manner as the Chief Executive may determine, and may be given by any enforcement officer.

(2) Where any such notice, order or document requires authentication —

- (a) the signature of the Chief Executive or an enforcement officer; or
- (b) an official facsimile of such signature, appended thereto shall be sufficient authentication.

Inaccuracies in documents

69.—(1) No misnomer or inaccurate description of any person, premises, conveyance or any other thing named or described in any notice, order or document prepared, issued or served under or for the purposes of this Act shall in any way affect the operation of this Act as respects that person, premises, conveyance or thing if that person, premises, conveyance or thing is so designated or described in the notice, order or document as to be identifiable.

(2) No proceedings taken under or by virtue of this Act shall be invalid for want of form.

Exemption

70.—(1) Subject to any general or special direction of the Minister, the Authority may, by order published in the Gazette, exempt any person or class of persons or any health product or class of health products from any or all of the provisions of this Act.

(2) In granting an exemption under subsection (1), the Authority may impose such conditions as it thinks fit.

(3) An exemption granted under this section may be revoked at any time.

Fees

71.—(1) The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, by regulations prescribe the fees that are payable under and for the purposes of this Act and the time at which and the manner in which any such fee is to be paid.

(2) All fees collected under this Act shall be paid into the funds of the Authority.

Regulations

72.—(1) The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, make regulations for carrying out the purposes and provisions of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, make regulations for or with respect to any or all of the matters set out in the Second Schedule, and provide in such regulations that a contravention thereof shall be an offence punishable with penalties not exceeding a fine of $20,000 or imprisonment for a term of 12 months or both.

(3) Regulations made under this section in relation to the supply or use of health products shall not affect the supply or use of health products for veterinary purposes.

(4) Where any regulation expressly states that it is made pursuant to paragraph 1(l) of the Second Schedule to implement any specified international agreement to which Singapore is a party, that regulation shall have effect notwithstanding any rule of law to the contrary.

(5) All regulations made under this section shall be presented to Parliament as soon as possible after publication in the Gazette.

PART XIV

REGULATION OF SUPPLY AND USE OF HEALTH PRODUCTS
AND ACTIVE INGREDIENTS FOR VETERINARY PURPOSESSupply and use of health products and active ingredients for veterinary purposes

73.—(1) The Minister charged with the responsibility for national development may make regulations in relation to the supply or use for veterinary purposes of —

- (a) any health product (whether or not such health product falls within any of the categories of health products specified in the First Schedule); or
- (b) any active ingredient.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) may —

- (a) prohibit the supply or use of any health product or active ingredient for any veterinary purpose, whether absolutely or subject to such exceptions as may be prescribed;
- (b) require that the supply or use of any health product or active ingredient for veterinary purposes should be made only in accordance with the prescription of a veterinarian;
- (c) provide for such other restrictions or controls on the supply or use of any health product or active ingredient for veterinary purposes;
- (d) provide that a contravention thereof shall be an offence punishable with penalties not exceeding a fine of $20,000 or imprisonment for a term of 12 months or both; and
- (e) provide for the administration and enforcement of such regulations by officers of the Agri-Food and Veterinary Authority.

(3) All regulations made under this section shall be presented to Parliament as soon as possible after publication in the Gazette.

Powers of officers enforcing regulations made under section 73

74. An officer of the Agri-Food and Veterinary Authority administering and enforcing any regulations made under section 73 shall have the same powers as are conferred on an enforcement officer by section 49.

Application of Parts X to XIII

75. The provisions of Parts X to XIII shall, where relevant, apply with the following modifications to the administration and enforcement of any regulations made under section 73:

- (a) any reference in the provisions of those Parts to the Minister shall be read as a reference to the Minister charged with the responsibility for national development;
- (b) any reference in the provisions of those Parts to the Authority shall be read as a reference to the Agri-Food and Veterinary Authority;
- (c) any reference in the provisions of those Parts to the Chief Executive shall be read as a reference to the Chief Executive of the Agri-Food and Veterinary Authority;
- (d) any reference in the provisions of those Parts to an enforcement officer shall be read as a reference to an officer of the Agri-Food and Veterinary Authority who is acting in the administration and enforcement of such regulations; and
- (e) any reference in the provisions of those Parts to a health product shall include any health product that does not fall within any of the categories of health products specified in the First Schedule.

PART XVRELATED AND CONSEQUENTIAL AMENDMENTS
TO OTHER WRITTEN LAWS*Related amendments to Medicines Act

76. The Medicines Act (Cap. 176) is amended —

- (a) by deleting the word “and” at the end of section 12(1)(b);

(b) by deleting the full-stop at the end of paragraph (c) of section 12(1) and substituting the word “; and”, and by inserting immediately thereafter the following paragraph:

“(d) whether the grant of a product licence for the medicinal products to which the application relates will be in the public interest.”; and

(c) by inserting, immediately after section 76, the following section:

“Act not to apply to products categorised and regulated as health products under Health Products Act 2007

77.—(1) Where any product to which this Act applies has been categorised as a type of health product under the Health Products Act 2007, the Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, declare that the provisions of this Act shall cease to apply to that type of product as from the date specified in the order, and the provisions of this Act shall, as from the date so specified, cease to apply to that type of product.

(2) The Minister may, in making any order under subsection (1), prescribe such transitional, savings and other consequential provisions as he may consider necessary or expedient.”.
